ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the Defendant's pro se letters to the Clerk of Court requesting the release of a truck and other personal property which was allegedly seized by the Government. The Defendant also states in his letters that he would like to file a motion challenging his sentence. [Docs. 180, 191].

The Clerk of Court cannot act upon letters submitted by parties. If the Defendant wishes to seek affirmative relief from the Court, he should do so by filing an appropriate motion.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that the Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to return the Defendant's letters [Docs. 180, 191] to the Defendant along with a copy of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
